About our Privacy Policy

The privacy of your Personal Information is important to Alive Network Pty Limited (ACN 652 167 569). We respect your rights to privacy and rights under the Privacy Act and are committed to complying with the requirements of Privacy Laws in the collection and handling of your Personal Information.

This policy explains how we collect, retain, process, share, transfer and handle your Personal Information and describes the kinds of Personal Information we collect, use, disclose and our purposes for doing so.

We use some defined terms in this policy. You can find the meaning of each defined term at the end of this policy.

Personal Information is information which may be used to reasonably identify you. For example, your name, address, date of birth, gender, email address, telephone number is generally considered to be Personal Information. Personal Information may also include information we collect about your individual preferences. We do not collect sensitive information from you.

This policy applies to your Personal Information when you use our Website, and interact generally with us but does not apply to Third Party Sites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or content of Third Party Sites.

For the avoidance of doubt, unless stated otherwise, this policy will govern our collection of your Personal Information irrespective of the forum.

This policy may be updated from time to time and the most up to date version will be published on our Website. We encourage you to check our Website periodically to ensure that you are aware of our current policy.

Your continued usage of our Website and/or services will be taken to indicate your acceptance of the terms of this privacy policy insofar as it relates to our Website.

Why we collect Personal Information

When you visit our Website, we collect Personal Information so that we can provide you with products and services and improve and customise your experience with us. We only collect Personal Information if it is reasonably necessary for us to carry out our functions and activities.

The purposes for which we collect and hold your Personal Information include:

1. to deliver our products and services to you;
2. to improve our products and services to you;
3. to manage our relationship with you, evaluate our business performance and build our customer database;
4. to provide you with information about our products, services and activities;
5. to enable you to participate in any promotion, competition, survey;
6. to enable you to subscribe to mailing lists and interact or follow us on social media;
7. to respond to your requests and seek your feedback;
8. to provide and improve technical support and customer service;
9. to conduct research, compare information for accuracy and verification purposes, compile or analyse statistics relevant to the operations of our business;
10. to facilitate our internal business operations, including fulfilment of any legal and regulatory requirements and monitoring, analysing and improving the performance and functionality of our Website and investigating breaches of or enforcement of any legal terms applicable to our Website;
11. to protect our property, the Website or our legal rights including to create backups of our business records;
12. to manage risk and protect our Website from fraud by verifying your identity and helping to detect and prevent fraudulent use of our Website;
13. for the direct marketing and promotional purposes as set out below; and
14. to manage our business, including analysing data collected from our Website concerning visits and activities of users on our Website including the Analytics Services. This analysis helps us run our Website more efficiently and improve and personalise your experience online.

What Personal Information do we collect?

The kinds of Personal Information we collect will depend on the type of interaction you have with us. Generally, the kinds of Personal Information we collect may include:

1. your name, address (postal and residential), email address, telephone number(s), date of birth and gender when you register with us;
2. information from third party sources such as data providers and credit organisations, where permitted by law, including public blockchain data such as your nominated public key for a digital asset wallet (including any Ethereum wallet address);

3. details of the device you have used to access any part of our Website, including carrier/operating system, connection type, IP address, browser type and referring URLs and other information may be collected and used by us automatically if you use our Website, through the browser on your device or otherwise;
4. demographic information;
5. location data;
6. your connections with others whose personal information we may collect or hold; and
7. transaction details relating to your use of our products, services or rewards including data regarding your feature usage patterns, interactions on our website and interactions with us.

Telephone calls to us may also be recorded for training and quality assurance purposes.

With whom do we share Personal Information?

We may disclose Personal Information collected from you:

1. to our related entities, employees, officers, agents, contractors, other companies that provide services to us, sponsors, government agencies or other third parties to satisfy the purposes for which the information was collected (as outlined in clause 2.2 of this policy) or for another purpose if that other purpose is closely related to the primary purpose of collection and an individual would reasonably expect us to disclose the information for that secondary purpose;
2. to third parties who help us to verify the identity of our clients and customers, and other software service providers who assist us to provide the services we provide to you;
3. to third parties who help us analyse the information we collect so that we can administer, support, improve or develop our business and the services we provide to you including cloud hosting services, off-site back ups and customer support;
4. to third parties, including those in the blockchain and fintech industry, marketing and advertising sectors, to use your information in order to let you know about goods and services which may be of interest to you in accordance with the SPAM Act 2003 (Cth) and the Privacy Act;
5. if the disclosure is requested by law enforcement or government agency, or is required by a law, or legal process, such as a subpoena, court or other legal process with which we are required to comply, including in relation to our obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth);

6. if disclosure is required to enforce the terms of this policy or to enforce any of our terms and conditions with you;
7. to our professional advisers such as consultants and auditors so that we can meet our regulatory obligations, and administer, support, improve or develop our business;
8. to any other person, with your consent (express or implied);
9. to protect the interests of our users, clients, customers and third parties from cyber security risks or incidents and other risks or incidents; and
10. to maintain the integrity of our Website and protect our rights, interests and property and those of third parties.

In addition to the above recipients, we will disclose your Personal Information if we are required to do so under law or if the disclosure is made in connection with either the normal operation of our business in a way that you might reasonably expect, for example, if such disclosure is incidental to IT services being provided to our business or for the resolution of any dispute that arises between you and us. This disclosure may involve your Personal Information being transmitted Overseas.

In the event of a proposed restructure or sale of our business (or part of our business) or where a company proposes to acquire or merge with us, we may disclose Personal Information to the buyer and their advisers without your consent subject to compliance with Privacy Laws. If we sell the business and the sale is structured as a share sale, you acknowledge that this transaction will not constitute the 'transfer' of Personal Information.

We may disclose de-identified, aggregated data with third parties for marketing, advertising, and analytics purposes. We do not sell or trade your personal information to third parties.

How we collect and store data and transmit Personal Information

We usually collect and store information including in electronic form provided by you when you communicate with us by email, web-based form, letter or other means, including when:

1. we provide you with our services via email or our Website;
2. we provide you with assistance or support for our products or services;
3. you participate in our functions, events or activities or on our social media pages;
4. you request that we provide you with information concerning our products or services;

5. you upload or submit information to us or our Website; or
6. you complete any forms requesting information from you, including on registration with us, complete any survey or provide feedback to us concerning our products or services.

Where practicable we will only collect information from you personally. However, we will also collect your Personal Information through our partners and third parties who supply services to us.

Please note that we use our own and third party computer servers including our Website hosts, data backups and payment gateway(s), which may be located Overseas and your Personal Information will likely be stored and transmitted Overseas as part of the normal operation of our business.

We also collect information from your computer or mobile device automatically when you browse our Website. This information may include:

1. the date and time of your visit;
2. your domain;
3. locality;
4. operating system;
5. the server your computer or mobile is using to access our Website;
6. your browser and version number;
7. search terms you have entered to find our Website or access our Website;
8. pages and links you have accessed both on our Website and on other websites;
9. the last website you visited;
10. the pages of our Website that you access;
11. the device you use to access our Website; and
12. your IP Address.

While we do not use some of this information to identify you personally, we may record certain information about your use of our Website such as which pages you visit and the time and date of your visit and that information could potentially be used to identify you.

It may be possible for us to identify you from information collected automatically from your visit(s) to our Website. If you have registered an account with us, we will be able to identify you through your user name and password when you log into our Website. Further, if you access our Website via links in an email we have sent you, we will be able to identify you.

The device you use to access our Website may collect information about you including your location using longitude and latitude coordinates obtained through GPS, Wi-Fi or cell site triangulation. For information about your ability to restrict the collection and use of such information, please use the settings available on your device.

We may use statistical analytics software tools and software known as cookies which transmit data to third party servers located Overseas. To our knowledge, our analytic providers do not identify individual users or associate your IP Address with any other data held by them.

We will retain your Personal Information for any time period we consider necessary to provide our products and services to you and to comply with our legal obligations. The period may vary depending on the type of Personal Information we hold. If we no longer need your personal information for these purposes we will take steps to destroy the information or ensure it is de-identified.

How we protect your Personal Information

We will endeavour to take all reasonable steps to keep secure and protect any Personal Information which we hold about you, including:

1. securing our physical premises and digital storage media;
2. using computer safeguards such as Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology to ensure that your information is encrypted and sent across the Internet securely;
3. placing password protection and access control over our information technology systems and databases to limit access and protect electronic information from unauthorised interference, access, modification and disclosure; and
4. taking regular back-ups of our electronic systems.

Notwithstanding that we will take all reasonable steps to keep your Personal Information secure, data transmission over the internet is never guaranteed to be completely secure. We do not and cannot warrant the security of any information you transmit to us or from any online services.

Use of Cookies

When you visit our Website or the website of any of our partners, we and our partners may use cookies and other tracking technology (Cookies) to recognise you and customise your online experience.

Cookies are small files that store information on your computer, mobile phone or other device. They enable us to recognise you across different websites, services, devices and/or browsing sessions.

Cookies also assist us to customise online content and advertising, save your preferences for future visits to the Website, measure the effectiveness of our promotions, prevent potential fraud and analyse your and other users' interactions with the Website.

If you do not wish to grant us the right to use cookies to gather information about you while you are using our Website, then you may set your browser settings to delete, disable or block certain Cookies. The following browsers have publicly available information about how to adjust cookie preferences: Microsoft Internet Explorer, Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome and Apple Safari.

You may be requested to consent to use of Cookies when you access certain parts of our Website, for example, when you are asked if you want the Website to “remember” certain things about you.

Certain aspects and features of the Website are only available through use of Cookies. If you disable Cookies, your use of the Website may be limited or not possible or parts of our Website may not function properly when you use them.

Upon your first visit to our Website (or the first visit after you delete your Cookies), you may be prompted by a banner to accept our use of Cookies and other tracking technology (Cookies policy). Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies and or declined to accept our Cookies policy, our system will issue Cookies when you access our Website.

Our Website may contain web beacons (also called single-pixel gifs) or similar technologies (Web Beacons) which are electronic images that we use:

1. to help deliver Cookies;
2. to count users who have visited our Website; and
3. in our promotional materials, to determine whether and when you open and act on them.

We may also work with third-parties:

1. to place Web Beacons on their websites or in their promotional materials as part of our business development and data analysis; and
2. to allow Web Beacons to be placed on our Website from Analytics Services to help us compile aggregated statistics about the effectiveness of our promotional campaigns or other operations.

The Web Beacons of Analytics Services may enable such providers to place Cookies or other identifiers on your device, through which they may collect information about your online activities across applications, websites or other products.

How we use Personal Information for communicating with you and direct marketing

We may communicate with you by email, SMS or push notification, to inform you about existing and new products and services that may be of interest to you including administering contests, promotions, surveys or other site features.

We will ensure that any email we send as direct marketing complies with the SPAM Act 2003 (Cth) and contain an 'unsubscribe' option so that you can remove yourself from any further marketing communications. To opt-out of communications via SMS, reply with "STOP". You may decline marketing messages sent by push notifications by refusing the relevant permission in your phone or tablet settings, however this setting will prevent you from receiving other messages from us via push notification. You may also opt-out of receiving marketing materials from us using the contact details set out below or adjusting your user dashboard on our Website. You can also write to us to request that your details be removed from our direct marketing list. We will endeavour to remove your details from our direct marketing list within a reasonable time (ordinarily 5 working days).

Our direct marketing list may be operated by software and servers located Overseas and your Personal Information may be sent Overseas as part of our marketing.

We will also send communications that are required or necessary to send to users of our Website that contain information about important changes or developments to or the operation of the Website or as well as other communications you request from us. You may not opt out of receiving these communications but you may be able to adjust the media and format through which you receive these notices.

Not identifying yourself

It may be impracticable to deal with you on an anonymous basis or using a pseudonym.

We may be able to provide you with limited information in the absence of your identifying yourself but generally we will be unable to provide you with any information, goods and/or services unless you have identified yourself.

How to access or correct your Personal Information or make an enquiry or complaint

If you have any queries in relation to this policy, wish to access or correct the Personal Information we hold about you, or make a complaint, please contact us in writing at:

Email:
hello@mome.io;

We aim to acknowledge receipt of all privacy complaints from you within 5 working days and resolve all complaints within 30 business days. Where we cannot resolve a complaint within that period, we will notify you of the reason for the delay as well as advising the time by which we expect to resolve the complaint.

In order to disclose information to you in response to a request for access we may require you to provide us with certain information to verify your identity. There are exceptions under Privacy Laws which may affect your right to access your Personal Information – these exceptions include where (amongst other things):

1. access would pose a serious threat to the life, health or safety of any individual;
2. access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others;
3. the request for access is frivolous or vexatious;
4. the information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between you and us and the information would not otherwise be accessible by the process of discovery;
5. giving access would reveal our intentions in relation to negotiations with you;
6. giving access would be unlawful;
7. denying access is required or authorised by or under an Australia law or a court/tribunal;
8. the information relates to commercial sensitive decision making process; or
9. giving access would prejudice enforcement related action.

We may (depending on the request) charge you a fee to access the Personal Information. We will inform you of any fees payable in respect of accessing your Personal Information prior to actioning your request. All requests for Personal Information will be handled in a reasonable period of time (within 30 calendar days after the request is made).

If you wish to have your Personal Information deleted, please contact us using the details above and we will take reasonable steps to delete the information (unless we are obliged to keep it for legal or auditing purposes). To the extent that any Personal Information is stored on a blockchain it may be impracticable, unfeasible or impossible to delete. In the event that you believe that there has been a breach of Privacy Laws, we invite you to contact us as soon as possible.

If you are not satisfied with our handling of a complaint or the outcome of a complaint you may make an application to:

1. the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner by visiting www.oaic.gov.au, emailing enquiries@oaic.gov.au; or writing to GPO Box 5218 Sydney NSW 2001; or
2. the Privacy Commissioner in your State or Territory.

Notifiable Data Breach

We are bound by the Privacy Act and are committed to complying with the Notifiable Data Breaches Scheme (NDB) established by the Privacy Amendment (Notifiable Data Breaches) Act 2017.

The NDB requires that where a data breach is likely to result in serious harm to any individuals to whom the information relates, we are required to notify those individuals and the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

The NDB provides greater protection to the Personal Information of consumers, greater transparency in the way organisations like us respond to data breaches and give you the opportunity to minimise the damage caused by any unauthorised use of your Personal Information.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may amend this privacy policy from time to time at our sole discretion, particularly where we need to take into account and cater for any:

1. business developments; or
2. legal or regulatory developments.

If we make changes, we will notify you by revising the date at the top of the Privacy Policy and, in some cases, may provide you with additional notice (such as adding a statement to the Website homepage or sending you a notification). We recommend you review the Privacy Policy whenever you access the Services or otherwise interact with us to stay informed about our information practices and the ways you can help us to protect your privacy.
